Assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr. In Re

Joycelyn,

Human Resource Management has conducted a usual search of paper, fiche and data-based files and was unable to locate documents or indexed data pertaining to Martin Luther King.

It should be recognized that HRM's ability to search outside the parameters of a name are limited but an effort to locate a file on the general topic of 'assassination' also failed to locate such information.

Should this topic need further search efforts by HRM, please provide the more specific terms which require investigation. Without this defined approach, our efforts may well be unfulfilling.

Dan
